Corporate Challenge Launches Team Training

Teamwork is at the heart and sole of any organisation, it requires communication, understanding, and the ability to adapt to the behavioural styles of each member of the team.

Corporate Challenge Team Training Products are designed to give your staff the skills and tools they need in order to understand and appreciate the differences in the people they work with. Our range of Team Training Products can assist you to build a productive and winning culture within your organisation.

Our new range of Team Training Products include:

- Personal Analysis Profiles
- Team Training Workshops
- Total Team Training Packages

For more information visit our website by clicking the product logo on the right of the page. Be one of the first 5 companies to book a Team Training product and go in the draw to win a free Team Building Program for your team. * Conditions Apply

Christmas Programs & Activities

With Christmas fast approaching now is the time to organise a Corporate Challenge Christmas Event for your team. Why not join "The Hunt For Santa's Slay" or sing your very own Christmas Jingle in "CCTV Music Awards Christmas Edition". For more information on our range of unique themed Christmas Programs contact the team at Corporate Challenge now.
